ZAYTUNA INSTITUTE

IMAM WARSH QUR'AN SCHOOL SUMMER SESSIONS 2007

July 15th to August 23rd

Sundays, Tuesdays, & Thursdays, 10:00am - 1:00pm

Beginning on July 15th, 2007, Zaytuna Institute is proud to offer Qur'an School Summer Sessions. The classes will take place three days-per-week with a special summer curriculum. The teachers will be Qari Amar Bellaha, Muhammad Nabil Afifi, and others. Registration is open to children ages 6-16.

SUMMER CURRICULUM*

Students will memorize Surah Ya Sin.

(*Beginning students will focus on memorizing a portion of Juz 'Ammah.)

Students are expected to memorize 10 ayat per class. Parents should be prepared to actively work with their children to make sure the ayat are memorized before the next class.

In addition to Qu'ran memorization students will be taught Seerah, stories of the prophets, and selected hadith from the Content of Character by Shaykh Hamza Yusuf.

CLASSES

Classes occur every Sunday, Tuesday, and Thursday from 10:00am to 1:00pm at Zaytuna Institute. Students will be taught in three separate groups/levels: Beginning, Intermediate, and Advanced.

INSTRUCTORS

Qari Amar Bellaha, Muhammad Nabil Afifi, Shaykh Abdur-Rahman Kajjaj, Rumana Abdullah, and other volunteers.

REGISTRATION

Registration is open to children ages 6-16. All children must be registered and have a completed application/registration form on file. Application forms can be picked up at the Zaytuna office or you can download from our website. Parents may submit their completed applications to the Zaytuna office or the program staff.

Student tuition is $200 for the Summer. It must be paid in full, by the start of the Summer session. Upon acceptance in to the program, parents may submit their tuition to the Zaytuna office or the program staff.

Financial aid is available; however applications must be completed and requests for financial aid submitted for consideration as soon as possible. Financial aid applications are available upon request.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

Dress code: All students are required to wear proper Islamic clothing. Clothing must be loose fitting. Students are not allowed to wear t-shirts with logos or any type of jeans. If they do they will be taken out of class and sent home. Also, avoid wearing any brand-name clothing. Sport-shoes are preferred.

- Boys: Long trousers and long-sleeve shirts (or traditional ethnic clothing) are required. Boys should also wear kufis.
- Girls: Ankle-length trousers or skirts long-sleeve shirts (or traditional ethnic clothing) are required. Girls are required to wear head scarves that cover all their hair.

Commitment: As students who are working towards memorizing the Book of Allah, all students are expected to take the program seriously and to have proper adab (Islamic manners) with Allah, Allah's Book, the teachers, fellow students, and the facilities at Zaytuna. In addition, as memorization requires time and effort from both student and teacher, students are expected to work daily on their memorization, making memorization and review a part of their daily activities. Students are expected to come to every class session on time with all assignments completed, and with their book, notebook and a pencil. Students who come unprepared will be sent home. Students should avoid activities that take away from the preservation of the memory such as watching television and eating foods that are haram or unhealthy. Inappropriate behavior or general lack of commitment by students may result in removal from the program.
